W Talbot, J Perrett, C Stratford

Chapter 5. Reporting lack of efficacy

Overview

Lack of efficacy is the apparent inability of an authorised veterinary medicinal product to have the expected efficacy in an animal, whether or not the product was used in accordance with the Summary of Product Characteristics (SPC). Anyone who is made aware of a lack of efficacy can report (prescriber, owner/keeper) to the Marketing Authorisation Holder or directly to the VMD.